Women in Black in London stand in solidarity with Palestinian women in the Israeli Occupied Territories in their struggle for justice, peace, well-being and a secure, prosperous and nonviolent future for themselves and their children.

We also stand alongside Women in Black in Israel, the Coalition of Women for Peace, Machsom Watch, Tandit and other organizations in Israel who work for a just peace and sustain contact with Palestinian women in the Occupied Territories.

We likewise support their work for equality, land rights and full democracy for Palestinians living within the state of Israel (20% of the population) and an end to discriminatory and racist legislation against them.

As part of the international movement calling for boycott, disinvestment and sanctions against Israel, we condemn Israeli legislation that punishes Israelis who support the call for BDS.

Women in Black hold vigils every Wednesday between 6-7 pm at the Edith Cavell Statue, opposite the door of the National Portrait Gallery, St.Martin's Place, London WC2. Our vigils are silent, women-only and if possible we wear black. We welcome all women who support our call for an end to militarism and war. Contact us at: wibinfo@gn.apc.org
